Exciting Announcement: Dates Announced for the 2025 Ringwood Eisteddfod

The Ringwood Eisteddfod Inc. President and Committee are excited to announce the dates for the 2025 Ringwood Eisteddfod Competition.

The 71st Ringwood Eisteddfod one of the community's most highly anticipated community performing arts events, announces its 2025 dates with an exciting and refined program and disciplines in the competition.

Mark your calendars for this spectacular showcase of talent, creativity, and community spirit, taking place from Friday 30th May and final section heats on Saturday 21st June at the Maroondah Federation Estate. The Showcase and Grand Final Gala Event to take place Saturday 19th July at the Karralyka Centre.

With a rich history in the City of Maroondah celebrating excellence in music of many disciplines the event continues to provide a platform for emerging and talented individuals across a broad age range. Participants will compete across a wide range of sections, offering audiences a diverse and captivating experience.

President of the Ringwood Eisteddfod Inc. Mr Bernie Capicchiano said "We are thrilled to announce the dates for next year's competition,". The Eisteddfod has always been a strong community event, and we're excited to welcome performers, their families, and audiences to enjoy the talent and passion that defines this event."

Highlights for 2025 include:

- Diverse Performance Sections: From junior classical vocal, aria through to woodwind and brass and chamber ensembles.
- Youth Divisions: Showcasing the next generation of talent in vocal and instrumental.

Registration for participants opens soon via Stardom. Further announcements will follow soon on how to apply along with frequently asked questions and competition guidelines.
